2003 RELAP5 International Users Seminar

Holiday Inn SunSpree Resort
West Yellowstone, Montana
August 27-29, 2003

The Idaho National Engineering & Environmental Laboratory (INEEL) will host the 2003 RELAP5 International Users Seminar at the Holiday Inn SunSpree Resort, West Yellowstone, Montana, USA, August 27-29, 2003.

The meeting will provide a forum for RELAP5 users from around the globe to share their experiences in performing analyses using the code. In addition, the latter portion of the seminar will be set aside for an executive meeting of the representatives of the International RELAP5 Users Group (IRUG). Membership in IRUG is not a condition of attendance to the meeting, and papers are encouraged based on the application of any version of RELAP5, including SCDAP/RELAP5 and ATHENA.

Meeting participants will see and hear about new features in RELAP5-3D® and the companion graphical user interface (RGUI).

The following schedule has been established for meeting participants:

June 1 – Abstracts and registration forms submitted to INEEL

July 15 – Papers or presentations submitted to INEEL

August 1 – Registration fee submitted to INEEL

August 15 – Preliminary agenda distributed

The final agenda will be distributed at the meeting.

Abstracts should be 500 words or less and can be e-mailed to gwi@inel.gov, faxed to (208) 526-0528, or mailed to the following address:

NOTE: Information on West Yellowstone follows.

WEST YELLOWSTONE

West Yellowstone, Montana rests on the border of Yellowstone National Park nestled within a valley of the Rocky Mountains. West Yellowstone is the perfect location for a vacation into Yellowstone National Park or tour the beautiful surrounding areas.

Adjacent to the West Entrance of Yellowstone National Park, West Yellowstone is the ideal spot for your family's Yellowstone Vacation.

Because a Yellowstone experience needs more than a day, you will be pleased with our convenient location. Yes, you could drive through Yellowstone National Park in one day, but to experience the full impact of our Nation's first national park allow yourself more than one day. Plan time for shopping, stopping, walking, looking, and even some Ranger-led activities. Ten thousand thermal features and 2 ½ million acres of nature's best will grab your imagination for days. Why not avoid the "pack-up, move-on, and search for another place to stay" hassles? Our friendly community offers its great location and full services at reasonable rates.

Wondering what is there to do while in West Yellowstone?

Discover Nature's Wonderland – In Yellowstone National Park, the earth is in action with geysers, mountain ranges and rivers, waterfalls, ancient volcanoes, evidence of more recent earthquakes. Wildlife abounds – elk, bison, eagles, swans, bighorn sheep, and trout! Two million acres of towering mountains and sweeping plains are yours to explore on foot, by car or boat, horseback, mountain bike, snowcoach, snowmobile or skies.

Blue Sky, Blue Water – Explore 12,000 recreational acres at Hebgen Lake, which offers superb boating, fishing, sailing, and wind surfing. We have all the conveniences – marinas, boat access, boat rentals, accommodations, camping and food service.

The Earth Moved – At Madison River Canyon Earthquake Area, half a mountain crumbled into the canyon in 1959. Over 37,000 acres of the Gallatin National Forest preserve the results of the earthquake. Stop by the visitor center, pick up a map and take a self-guided tour. Open Memorial Day through Labor Day.

Play in the Past – Relive Montana Territory gold rush days. Visit authentically restored buildings in Virginia City and the ghost town of Nevada City, just 85 miles north. Tours run from late May to mid-September.

Journey into the Earth – Explore the largest limestone caverns in the northwest on a two-hour guided tour of Lewis and Clark Caverns State Park, 110 miles from West Yellowstone. Open May 1st to September 30th.

Get out your binoculars – Red Rock Lake National Wildlife Refuge is 30 miles from West Yellowstone. Established to preserve the rare trumpeter swan, the refuge is home to 18 waterfowl species, fox, moose, and pronghorn antelope.

Choose Your Fun – You never run out of things to do in West Yellowstone. Fish our blue-ribbon trout streams and lakes. Hike miles of trails for a closer look at flowers and wildlife. Horseback ride with a western wrangler. Float a gentle river or brave the white water. In town, browse through specialty shops, attend a live theater performance and visit the Museum of the Yellowstone and International Fly Fishing headquarters and gallery. Housed in the Union Pacific Depot, the museum contains Indian, cavalry and mountain man artifacts as well as wildlife dioramas.
